

Please do not weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. Since the law went into effect, the unwanted, unsolicited telephone calls have been dramatically reduced. If this law is weakened, as the Consumers Bankers Assoc. would like, it will result in more unwanted interruptions. I enjoy the privacy of my home, and part of that privacy is the ability to relax without the bothersome solicitations of unwanted telephone calls.